BREAD TO OFFER

A GOD WHO DOES NEW AND GOOD THINGS

By Fr. Barnabas Eichor, OFM, Cap.

The prophet Baruch, in his short Old Testament book, is speaking to God's people during the upheaval of the Babylonian exile. He tells them God is ready to bring the exiles back home, and the return home will be a glorious event. The Jewish exiles are ready to return home because of their repentance for having sinned against God, which is what led to the exile. By this time the Jewish people had lost hope that Jerusalem and its Temple would ever be rebuilt, and the exiles believed they would be spending the rest of their lives as captives in a foreign land. Baruch saw beyond their present captivity and knew that God was going to do new and great things for the exiles because of their repentance.

The Jews at the time of John the Baptist, 500 years later, were not a free people. They had their Temple; Jerusalem had been rebuilt. But they were part of the great Roman Empire. Rome made the rules, Rome collected heavy taxes, Rome was brutal. At this time, Roman soldiers marched through the streets of Jerusalem freely. The Roman governor Pontius Pilate, who was noted for his brutality, controlled all of Israel. Most of us think of Pontius Pilate as sympathetic or just plain weak because of the way he handled Jesus when Jesus was arrested. Most of us do not know that in a couple of years Pilate would lose his job because the emperor, who was not a nice man himself, considered him too ruthless and violent. But the prophet John the Baptist saw beyond all their oppression as he quoted from the prophet Isaiah: "All flesh shall see the salvation of God."

Baruch, John the Baptist, and Isaiah all saw and knew that if the people repented and turned their lives back to God, God would then have room to work in their lives and do something new and great for the people of Israel. Indeed because of Israel's contrition the exile ended, and the promised Messiah came for the salvation of all.

The same is true for us: if we want God to do new and great things, we have to give him room to do so. We give him room by our own willingness to change our lives, our habits, and our commitments. When the Lord is first in our lives, he has room to do new and great things for us.

In order to give God room in our lives we, too, like Isaiah and John the Baptist, "have to prepare the way of the Lord." St. Paul gives us an idea of what we should be doing to prepare when he tells the Philippians what he prays for them. He prays that their love for God and for each other may increase, that they keep a sense of what is important in life and that they live lives devoted to prayer and good works. Let us all take the advice of the prophets and St. Paul and prepare "the way of the Lord" in our own lives.

- Fr. Barnabas

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

RESERVOIR ADORATION: WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14

Everybody is invited to come to the church for an hour of reflection and worship through prayer, music, and Eucharistic Adoration during our first Reservoir Adoration of the new school year, from 7:00-8:00 p.m.

This holy hour before the Blessed Sacrament is your time to bring your prayers to our heavenly Father through song and silence. Feel free to bring any additional prayer resources you might use, and come prepared to give an hour to God!

WEEKDAY ADORATION IN THE PADRE PIO CHAPEL

Eucharistic Adoration in the Padre Pio Chapel (located inside the north entrance of the church) is one-on-one time with the One we love the most! A time to further that personal friendship and devotion to Jesus, present in the Eucharist and displayed before us for us to adore. How fortunate and blessed we are!

Adoration is available Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 6:00 a.m. till 9:00 p.m. each day in the Padre Pio Chapel.

You may come adore at any time (you do not have to sign up for a time slot ahead of time), but scheduling an hour a week helps us insure that someone is present in the chapel at all times. If you have questions, want to sign up for an hour, or would like to sign up as a substitute, please contact Brandon Volz: mrbrandonvolz@gmail.com

SOCIAL JUSTICE SOCIAL ACTION

By Susan Tabor, Social Concerns Committee

"I appeal forcefully to all those who sow violence and death by force of arms: in the person you today see simply as an enemy to be beaten, discover rather your brother or sister, and hold back your hand! Give up the way of arms and go out to meet the other in dialogue, pardon and reconciliation, in order to rebuild justice, trust, and hope around you!" —Pope Francis (World Day of Peace, 2014)

Each year the International Day of Peace is observed around the world on 21 September. The General Assembly of the United Nations has declared this as a day devoted to strengthening the ideals of peace, both within and among all nations and peoples. The Day's theme for 2016 is "The Sustainable Development Goals: Building Blocks for Peace." Sustainability addresses the fundamental needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs. Modern challenges of poverty, hunger, diminishing natural resources, water scarcity, social inequality, environmental degradation, diseases, corruption, racism and xenophobia, among others, pose challenges for peace and create fertile grounds for conflict. Sustainable development contributes decisively to dissipation and elimination of these causes of conflict and provides the foundation for a lasting peace. Peace, meanwhile, reinforces the conditions for sustainable development and liberates the resources needed for societies to develop and prosper. Every single one of the 17 Sustainable Development Goals is a building block in the global architecture of peace.

Pace E Bene, a Franciscan peace-making and peace-building apostolate, is holding their annual Campaign Nonviolence in conjunction with the International Day of Peace on September 21, and has asked that parishes and communities prayerfully consider a prayer service or some other action to increase awareness of the importance of building peace and nonviolence in our world which is often fraught with war and conflict and with other forms of violence.

To that end, we will be hosting a prayer service this year.

In 2014 and 2015, the social concerns committee held prayer services on or around September 21 to recognize the International Day of Peace. The St. John social concerns committee will be hosting a prayer service at 7:00 p.m. in the church on September 21 again this year. We are holding a prayer service for the healing of the nations. It will offer you a chance to come and join us in praying for peace and healing in our world and also to pray for nations, singly and collectively.

The prayer in this service is beautiful as is the music that will accompany it. We hope and pray that you will join us in praying for peace and healing of the nations on September 21 at 7:00 p.m. in the church.

23rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

MOTHER TERESA OF KOLKATA

August 26, 1910, to September 5, 1997

FEAST DAY: September 5

PATRON: Known informally as the “Saint of the Slums”

BIRTH NAME: Anjezë Gonxhe Bojaxhiu

HOME TOWN: Skopje, Macedonia

RELIGIOUS ORDER: The Missionaries of Charity

LIFE-CHANGING MOMENT: Before founding the Missionaries of Charity, Mother Teresa was a sister of Loreto for nearly 20 years, serving as a teacher in Calcutta. On a long train ride—from Calcutta to Darjeeling—she experienced a powerful moment of prayer in which she received what she described as “a call within a call.” Jesus was asking her to give up the life she knew to care for the “poorest of the poor” on the streets of Calcutta. “I was to leave the convent and work with the poor, living among them. It was an order. I knew where I belonged, but I did not know how to get there.” Soon after, in 1948, she sought permission to leave her order and struck out on her own to begin this vocation.

MISSION: Mother Teresa founded the Missionaries of Charity to provide “wholehearted and free service to the poorest of the poor.” She began by offering food, a bath, or even just an embrace to the people she encountered in the slums of Calcutta. She wanted to serve “Jesus in his most distressing disguise.” But she couldn’t do this without a commitment to a radical life of prayer, even through the trials of a life of service and moments of doubt. Prayer helped her remember that Jesus, who suffered and thirsted on the Cross, was the same Jesus who was suffering in the poor on the streets.

LEGACY: Today the Missionaries of Charity comprise 4,500 sisters around the world. They provide basic care, like food, shelter and medicine, to vulnerable people around the world, including refugees, chronically and terminally ill children and adults, abandoned children, lepers, people living with or affected by HIV and AIDS, the elderly, and people with mental disabilities.

IN HER OWN WORDS: “If we really want to love others, we must first begin to love one another in our own home. Love begins at home, and so from here—from our own home—love will spread to my neighbor, in the street I live, in the town I live, in the whole world.”

“Nakedness is not only for a piece of cloth. Nakedness is for human dignity, for respect. Homelessness is not only for a home made of bricks. Homelessness is being rejected, unwanted, unloved, uncared for, having forgotten what is human love, what is human touch.”

WOMEN IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

A New Class with Fr. Barnabas

Fr. Barnabas is now offering a series of classes on the women in the New Testament. It is an opportunity to learn more about several important characters in the New Testament who often get overlooked: the women who were with the Lord during his earthly ministry. The most prominent of these women is, of course, Mary, and the class will go through the church's understanding of Mary in Scripture and Tradition using John Paul II's encyclical, "Redemptoris Mater." As the class progresses we will look at the lives of other women who served as powerful examples of Christ in the New Testament. "Redemptoris Mater" can be downloaded for free from our website: sjevangelist.com. Classes meet Tuesday evenings in the church basement from 7:00—8:30pm, and all are welcome!

THAT MAN IS YOU!

That Man Is You (TMIY) is gearing up for another wonderful year of meeting on Wednesday mornings. This year's program is The Spirit of Nazareth and is designed for those wishing to take the next step on how to discern God's will in their lives and grow their spiritual life closer to what God intends.

We meet starting Wednesday, September 14th from 6:00 a.m. to 7:30 a.m. Please give strong consideration to joining a great group of men every Wednesday morning for fellowship and reflection. We look forward to another great year!

MARRIAGE MINUTE

What happened to the "great crowds" that accompanied Jesus? In our own day, many are left wondering what happened to the great crowds of people who used to attend Mass and now only attend at Christmas or Easter. This includes sons, daughters, brothers or sisters. While different people fall away from the practice of the Faith for different reasons, Jesus' words in the Gospel this week give us insight. "Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple." Let's face it, following Christ is hard. Nowhere is this truer than in matters of marriage and family.

What do we do? Draw strength from the Holy Spirit, the witness of the Saints, and strive to live a joyful life that convinces our loved ones that we are stronger and happier people with the Eucharist present in our lives. A joyful family life is the greatest message we can send.

REDISCOVER JESUS

CHAPTER 33: COMFORTABLY COMFORTABLE

Each week we will be posting the reflection items from a chapter of the book Rediscover Jesus here, on our website, and on our Facebook page. Bear these items in mind as you go through your week! (If you do not have a copy of the book, you can pick one up for free at the parish office.)

Point to Ponder: Being too comfortable, too often, makes us weak in mind, body, and spirit.

Verse to Live: "If anyone wishes to come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross, and follow me." {Matthew 16:24}

Question to Consider: What is one way you can deny yourself today?

Prayer: Jesus, thank you for all the comforts of this world; help me to discern when they are good for me and when they are not.

Él debe ser el

de nuestra vida

4 de septiembre de 2016

23er Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Con referencia a las lecturas de este domingo el Papa Francisco nos dice que "Decidir seguirlo a Él, nuestro Maestro y Señor que se ha hecho Siervo de todos, exige caminar detrás de Él y escucharlo atentamente en su Palabra --acordaos de leer todos los días un pasaje del Evangelio-- y en los Sacramentos" (Ángelus de 13 de septiembre de 2015). El Papa nos recomienda que para ser discípulo de Cristo, debemos de practicar tres actitudes concretas. La primera es la disponibilidad, ser materia dispuesta y dejar todo a segundo plano, hasta la propia vida para alcanzar la meta del Reino desde aquí en la tierra. La exigencia es recompensada con la amistad y cercanía íntima con Jesús. La segunda es renunciar a nosotros mismos y tomar la cruz para seguirlo. La cruz nos acerca a Jesús, y nos brinda la oportunidad de acompañarlo en la vida cotidiana. La última condición es la renuncia de los propios bienes, compartiendo lo que tenemos con los más necesitados.

Seguir a Jesucristo no es fácil, pero nunca nos faltara su ayuda. ¿Crees esto? ¿Cuál de las tres actitudes te parece más difícil? ¿Cuál es la más fácil? San Pablo nos ayuda a comprender estas actitudes llevando a cabo la caridad cristiana: "... a fin de que lo recuperaras [a Onésimo] para siempre, pero ya no como esclavo, sino como algo mejor que un esclavo, como hermano amadísimo". La enseñanza es amar como Cristo nos ha amado. ¿Lo haremos? Las limitaciones del ser humano son muchas pero, si se abre el corazón a la sabiduría divina y al Santo Espíritu de Dios, todo puede ser superado.

ORACIÓN

Madre Teresa de Calcuta,

En el tren a Darjeeling *escuchaste lo que muchos corazones humanos anhelan escuchar:

la voz de Dios.*

A través de la semilla de su Palabra

*creaste un movimiento que el mundo rara vez ha visto
y que tanto anhelaba:*

*un movimiento de misericordia,
un movimiento de compasión,*

un movimiento de esperanza que brilla en los lugares más oscuros.

Y en cada una de las capillas de tus Hermanas en todo el mundo ahí cuelga un crucifijo:

*Cristo sufriendo, muriendo
y las palabras, "Tengo sed".*

Estas palabras son un llamado a la acción.

*Fijamos la mirada en tu ejemplo
alejándote del camino seguro*

arriesgandolo todo para cumplir la voluntad del Señor por los más pobres entre los pobres.

Y escuchamos el agonizante lamento que invocabas: "Tengo sed".

¿Acaso nosotros no hemos escuchado también la Voz de Dios?

Madre Teresa, tú que conoces nuestro corazón que clama por Él que llora por nosotros.

*Y al responder a este lamento
en nuestras oraciones y obras,
pedimos tu intercesión:*

Madre Teresa de Calcuta, ruega por nosotros.

Amén
