FAITH AND FAMILY

Last weekend I wrote about the Ramadan “fast-breaking” dinner and the purpose of it as well as the sponsorship of it by the Dialogue Institute, Kansas City. We had a great turnout on Monday evening – 84 people were in attendance! I am very proud of our parish in its efforts to work toward peace and concord among people of other faiths, especially regarding Islam, which has a negative reputation due to violence from radical fundamentalist interpretations of the Koran. The purpose of hosting a Ramadan fast-breaking dinner was not to provide an opportunity to proselytize – to convert Catholics to Islam or Muslims to Catholicism – but to encourage fellowship, dialogue, and support of people of a different faith tradition. As Catholics we believe and profess Jesus Christ and his suffering, death, resurrection; that he is truly God and truly human; and that he is the full revelation of God. Our hosting of the fast-breaking meal was simply an attempt to create a positive and hospitable environment for people of the Islamic tradition and for them to know that, while we acknowledge our differences regarding our understanding of God and the Scriptures, we support them as people of God, who wish to be represented in a truthful and dignified way.

On a vastly different but necessary note, today is a special day for fathers among us. Father’s Day is a special time, like Mother’s Day, when we pause and reflect upon the gift that Fatherhood is to all of us. Fathers sometimes feel overwhelmed by their responsibility. Without really knowing just what exactly would be required of them in their role as a father, they married and began to have children. For some, it is a gradual realization of the immense responsibility in providing for a family. For others, it is a sudden and very sobering realization. In either case, the husband and father might feel inadequate in contrast to his wife’s intuitive and perhaps more competent knowledge with respect to rearing children, the practical necessities in conducting a household, and how to guide a family in faith and the developmental formation of children. When a husband sees after some time that it is his wife who actually runs the household, he can feel inadequate and incompetent. On the one hand, this may cause him to respond by over-imposing his God-given authority as husband and father, which then creates an awkward and sometimes difficult living situation for his wife and children. On the other hand, he might recognize the complimentary role that he shares with his wife which might lead to a deeper appreciation of his role as father and husband. The former can result in an immature and over-bearing father and husband, while the latter results in an overall sense of fulfilment and gratitude in his role as father and husband. The trick is for the father to claim his unique role as father and husband with reasonable confidence (not arrogance), while recognizing in his wife her particular gifts and sensitivities to the needs of the children and of the family as a whole. His wife is not really in competition with him as it may seem to him, but is actually acting upon her calling and intuition regarding the needs of the family and of the future of the family. If the father/husband feels threatened by his wife’s natural, intuitive, and perceptive abilities, and begins to resent her direction of the household (including at times her direction him!) the family will suffer his awkward attempts at imposing his own authority. If however, the husband/father recognizes and admires his wife’s ability and able facilitation of the family unit, he will feel proud and supported in his own role as husband and father, and will feel confident in his relationship with his wife. A Happy and Blessed Father’s Day to all of our Dad’s and Grandfathers!

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ, during which the Church reflects in a particular way on the real presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. You might be interested in hearing my short reflection on this feast posted on our parish app.

MARRIAGE MINUTE

"A Father's blessing gives his family strong roots." Sirach 3:9 Wives, as you prepare for Father's Day this weekend, by all means plan his favorite meal or pick up a gift. In addition, take some time with your kids to reflect on how important his fatherhood is to your family... then share your answers with him!

- How is Dad strong (physically, spiritually, financially, in character, etc.)?
- In what ways does Dad's strength make me feel secure?
- What do I respect most about Dad?
- What are some of my favorite times I have spent with Dad?

JUSTICE MATTERS

AN INTERFAITH NETWORK DOING JUSTICE IN LAWRENCE AND DOUGLAS COUNTY

An update of one of the Justice Matters' current issues by Pat Lechtenberg

In 2014 Justice Matters members voted Child Welfare as the second priority to be addressed. Research during the next 5 months and led to the Adverse Childhood Experiences Study (ACES).

It's a study that is radically transforming the way we think about health. It's a simple survey with ten basic questions that explore the trauma a person experienced in childhood. A point is given for each yes answer and the total number points is what is called a person's ACE score.

Research shows the higher your ACE score, the greater your chance of poor health outcomes later in life. The Center for Disease Control and Prevention are treating ACEs like you would exposure to lead paint or the zika virus. It's considered a transmission when children are exposed because trauma literally changes a child's body and brain structure. A person with a score of 3 or more is more likely to get diabetes, heart disease, stroke, cancer, depression, alcoholism. We learned 1 in 5 children in Douglas County will experience three or more ACEs before they turn 18 putting them at serious risk of poor health outcomes.

In the most advanced communities, doctors are asking expectant parents for their ACE score as part of their regular screening process. Just like you would ask about heart disease in the family. Where this is routine, the outcomes have been impressive. Simply asking these questions in a medical setting has proven to reduce ER visits for newborns by 11%. And when people are connected to services such as in-home visitation, the risk that children will be abused, neglected, or exposed to other traumas is minimized.

At our Nehemiah Action Assembly this year, Justice Matters leaders and called on two of the largest medical practices in Lawrence to begin regular ACE assessments among expectant parents and newborns this summer. Both PANDA Pediatrics and the OB-GYN Specialist Groups agreed and screening has begun.

FALL CLASS WITH FR. BARNABAS

The Life of Christians in the Early Roman Empire

Life was dangerous for the earliest Christians. Unless they agreed to worship the gods of Rome, they could not work and would be persecuted. So how did this "small, despised and illegal Jewish cult" of a few thousand members grow to the point that it would become the dominant cultural force in Rome by 325 A.D.? How that all happened will be the subject of Fr. Barnabas's next class beginning in September. See www.sjevangelist.com for more information.

The main text for the Class will be the recent and important book Destroyer of the Gods: Early Christian Distinctiveness in the Roman World by Larry W. Hurtado.

FOCUS ON THE WORD

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

"The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying, 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?'" From the beginning, the Eucharist has been a source of controversy. Some people have always found the teaching difficult to accept. But as Catholics, the Blessed Sacrament is at the heart of our worship and our spirituality; we go to Mass to share in the holy sacrifice of Jesus' body and blood, and we receive spiritual nourishment from partaking of this heavenly food. As Jesus himself tells us in today's Gospel, "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him."

From this passage it is clear that Jesus intended the Eucharist to be a tremendous gift for us, for "whoever eats this bread will live forever." This of course is because the bread is Christ's "flesh for the life of the world." In other words, just as he gave his body on the cross to save us from our sins, so too this same flesh is given for us at every Mass to strengthen our weakness and unite us more deeply to our Savior.

Receiving Communion isn't like taking a magic pill, however. We must beware of reducing this sacrament to an empty ritual or a foolproof guarantee of heaven. No, it is quite possible to receive Communion unworthily and reject its spiritual efficacy. Just like the benefits of a healthy meal can be undone by a habit of binging on junk food, so too we can prevent holy Communion from having its full benefits when we crowd our souls with vices and sins. If, on the other hand, we wish to let this sacrament of divine grace flourish, we should receive it with a sincere spirit of gratitude and reverence, praying that we may be made worthy to receive such a gift.

FOR KIDS: SHARING THE GOSPEL

REFLECTION

When God's people were in the desert with Moses, they got hungry. So, God gave them sweet manna from heaven every morning. It was all they needed to live. God sent Jesus to us from heaven, too, but he's much better than manna. Through Jesus, we can live forever with God.

PRAYER

God, thank you for sending Jesus from heaven.

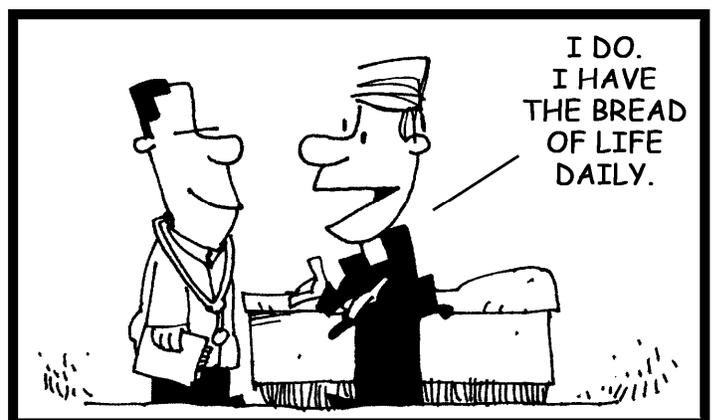

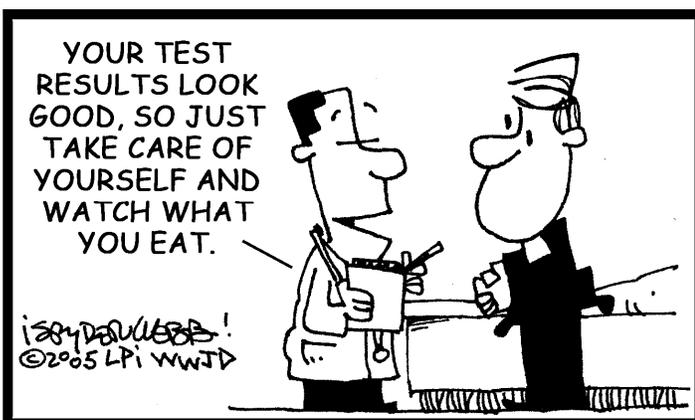

SOMETHING TO DRAW

Draw a picture of manna falling from the sky.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Every morning when you eat breakfast, spend time with Jesus. Trust God to give you all that you need.

EL CUERPO Y LA SANGRE DE CRISTO

Ir a través del calendario litúrgico durante el año es una verdadera catequesis. Si recordamos bien desde la Pascua hasta Pentecostés hemos vivido grandes momentos de fe y de acercamiento al Señor. El domingo pasado escuchábamos lo que es la Trinidad. Hoy ponemos nuestra atención en la solemnidad del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo. Su inicio fue en Lieja (ciudad en Bélgica), en 1246, luego fue extendida a toda la Iglesia occidental por el Papa Urbano IV. Su finalidad es proclamar la fe en la presencia real de Jesucristo en la Sagrada Eucaristía.

El mismo Señor Jesús nos dice en la Sagrada Escritura: "Yo soy el pan vivo que ha bajado del cielo; el que coma de este pan vivirá para siempre. Y el pan que yo les voy a dar es mi carne para que el mundo tenga vida" (Jn 6, 51). Jesús es la Palabra divina encarnada en el mundo. Su cuerpo y su sangre son comida y bebida para vivir en comunión con él. Es un verdadero misterio que la mente humana no alcanza a comprender. Pero, la fe ayuda a por lo menos entender que en el sacramento de la Eucaristía Jesús mismo se nos da para siempre. ¿Qué le decimos al Señor cuando lo recibimos en la Eucaristía? ¿Qué sentimientos afloran en nosotros cuando vamos en procesión para recibirlo? Para nuestra reflexión semanal nos pueden ayudar las siguientes palabras. Pan, vino, cuerpo del Señor y vivir para siempre. Con estas palabras en mente y el corazón lleno de fe en la Eucaristía, solo me resta decir que cantando vamos caminando al encuentro del Señor. ¡Que así sea!

EL CUERPO Y LA SANGRE DE CRISTO

Los seres humanos nos acostumbramos con facilidad a las cosas que nos anuncian los medios de comunicación. Pronto corremos a consumir las cremas que quitan las arrugas, el tinte nuevo para el color del cabello y píldoras maravillosas que nos darán unos añitos más de vida, aunque de sobra sabemos que ni la crema nos quitará las arrugas, ni el tinte quitará las canas y mucho menos la píldora nos devolverá la juventud. Entonces, ¿por qué lo hacemos? ¿Qué nos motiva a creer en esto? ¿Por qué nos dejamos engañar?

Les digo esto porque hoy viene Cristo, que nunca nos engaña, a anunciarnos con todo su amor que "Mi carne es verdadera comida y mi sangre es verdadera bebida... El que come de este pan vivirá para siempre". Es decir, Jesús nos mantiene en perfecta forma en esta vida y en la otra lo gozaremos eternamente. ¡Y aun así no le hacemos caso! Asistimos a Misa muchas veces por costumbre y sin ganas de cambiar nuestra forma de vida. Su Palabra nos entra por un oído y sale por el otro. Peor aún, en Misa ni comemos su pan ni bebemos su sangre, cuando la Eucaristía debería ser para los cristianos el medio más importante de participación en la familia y la sociedad de lo divino. Es decir, la Eucaristía es la acción plena del Resucitado entre nosotros. Participemos pues en nuestra celebración eucarística en esta hermosa fiesta del Cuerpo y la Sangre del Señor, sabiendo de antemano que su gracia que desea comunicarnos es dada por medio de este sacramento. De esta forma tendremos fuerza para perdonar a los que nos ofenden y resistir a las tentaciones a las que estamos expuestos en nuestra vida cotidiana.
