

ST JOHN
THE EVANGELIST
CATHOLIC CHURCH

3rd Sunday of Ordinary Time

And Jesus said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you fish for people."
Immediately they left their nets and followed him. Matthew 4:19-20

Part of being a steward is leaving something behind. Maybe that 'something' is time, or money, or convenience, or maybe it's prejudice or a sense of entitlement. We can't expect to grow as stewards without leaving something behind.

WELCOME TO ST. JOHN

St. John the Evangelist, a Catholic Capuchin Franciscan Parish, welcomes all who are called to be disciples of Jesus Christ and proclaims His Gospel through prayer, worship, His Word, and the sacraments. Members, inspired by the Holy Spirit through faith formation and spiritual renewal, witness to the Gospel in lives of justice and charity, build up families and children through education, hospitality and fellowship, and serve those in need with compassion.

THE SPIRIT OF GOD IS SPIRIT OF PEACE.

DID YOU KNOW.....

St. John Catholic School is a tithing-based Catholic school. This means as a parishioner of St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church your children have access to a Catholic education through your tithing and service to the St. John parish community. Please contact Samantha Romero at: sromero@saint-johns.net for more information about this tithing-based Catholic education. You can also visit us online to learn more about the school at: sjevangelist.com/school

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK EVENTS

Sunday, January 26 – 11:00 am Mass. Students and staff will be involved in various parts of the Mass. We ask students to wear their St. John t-shirts to Mass, and for families to join us in worshipping together.

The daily themes of our week are Faith, Knowledge, Service, and Growth. The four themes are a part of our School Mission Statement and are represented with the four pictures on our school t-shirt.

Faith

Monday, January 27 – Grandparents/ Special Persons Mass and Open House – 8:30 am– Grandparents and Special Persons are invited to join us for mass in the school gym. There will be a short Open House for Grandparents and Special Persons following the Mass.

Knowledge

Tuesday, January 28 – Prayer partner classes will get together to participate in an activity to build their knowledge in their faith.

Service

Wednesday, January 29 - Students will take some time out of their day to help clean around St. John. Middle school students will help pick up in the park, intermediate students will help to clean in the church, and primary students will help clean around the school.

Growth

Thursday, January 30 - 8:30 am Adoration Service for our student body. A great opportunity for us to grow in our faith.

St. John Science Fair – 5:30 – 6:00 pm – come see student projects in the Performing Arts Center.

StuCo Spirit Day

Friday, January 31 – Our monthly StuCo Spirit Day also falls during Catholic Schools Week so we thought we should connect the two. On Friday, we are going to do Vocations Day (Career Day). Students can dress up in the what they want their future vocation (career) to be. We just ask that students fill out a sheet explaining how they are going to glorify God through their future vocation. This won't be complicated and a great opportunity for you to talk to your kids about their faith. We will end the week with some fun time for students to relax and enjoy at the end of the day.

PTO Bingo Night – 5:30-7:00 pm – Come join us for dinner and bingo in the church basement to end Catholic Schools Week.

Thank you for your prayers and support for the continued success of St. John Catholic School.

SECOND COLLECTION FOR THE CHURCH IN LATIN AMERICA

This weekend, we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America! Many people in Latin America and the Caribbean do not have access to church programs and ministries because of a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers. Your generosity makes it possible for our brothers and sisters in Latin America and the Caribbean to share in the life of the Church and grow closer to Christ. Please be generous to the special collection! To learn more please visit: www.usccb.org/latin-america.

SOCIAL JUSTICE SOCIAL ACTION

By Susan Tabor
Social Concerns Committee

This week, I'm writing to appeal for your prayerful consideration in helping one of the ministries in our local community that we support here at St. John.

In 2005, Family Promise, an ecumenical ministry to homeless families in our local community, was begun. It was founded by a fellow Catholic, Joe Reitz, a retired business professor from KU and a parishioner at Holy Family in Eudora. Joe was dismayed by the number of homeless children in our schools and had a heart for what they and their families were experiencing. So, Joe went about looking for a model to serve them.

Thus, Family Promise came to be in Lawrence. It is based on a national model in which program overhead is saved by families being housed at local churches, moving from one church to another each week so that housing can be equitably managed. Families are screened for drug and alcohol problems and behavioral issues. To ensure maximal progress, it is important to protect families and keep their environment safe.

Participating churches are divided into two kinds: host churches and support churches. St. John is the support church for Corpus Christi, which is a host church. There are now enough participating churches that each host and support church is on duty roughly one week each quarter. St. John provides dinner, hosts for the evening and provides overnight hosting on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings each week we serve at Corpus Christi

We are always glad to have new volunteers to cook and host in the evenings. What we are in most need of now are overnight hosts.

Family Promise's requirement is two hosts overnight. Overnight hosts arrive at 8:15 to 8:30 in the evening and are finished at 6:30 am, when the van comes to pick up the guests to take them to the day center where the adults, if unemployed, will look for work and housing and where the children will be transported to school. All Overnight hosts make sure lights are out at 10:00 pm and make sure that guest families are up and moving at 6:00 am and that the coffee is on.

There has only been one overnight emergency over the last 15 years on the St. John/Corpus Christi rotation. It was a run to the emergency room with a guest who had no car.

Overnight hosts are provided cots and bring their own bedding; many use a sleeping bag on top of the cot. You would not be required to stay awake; yes, you may sleep overnight. Once in a while, you may need to be awake to let someone in (they let you know they've arrived via intercom) who has worked a shift that has them leaving work after 10:00 pm.

If you can help, please contact Susan Tabor at: souljourner@sbcglobal.net or Jana Wallen at: janawallen@sbcglobal.net with your phone number and we will get in touch with you. Thank you for your prayerful consideration. If we can't fulfill our overnight commitment, we may have to re-consider our commitment to this wonderful and worthwhile ministry; one that helps families get back on their feet with solid grounding.

CUENTO NÚMERO 94 LA APUESTA

Andrés, joven campesino ciego, salió una mañana de la iglesia para volver a su casa. Otro joven del pueblo, Lucas, que era un maligno burlón y que se mofaba sin piedad del pobre ciego, se acercó a él y le dijo:
- ¿Quieres que hagamos una apuesta? Apuesto cuarenta mil pesos a que corro más que tú.
- Acepto la apuesta, si me dejas elegir el camino y la hora que más me convengan.
Ante esta respuesta, Lucas prorrumpió en una sonora carcajada; conforme, aceptó la propuesta y eligió como testigos a todos los presentes.
- Pues bien, esta noche, a media noche, partiremos de aquí para ir a la ciudad; el que llegue primero será el dueño de los cuarenta mil pesos.
Cuando a media noche sonó el reloj de la torre del pueblo, ambos se pusieron en camino.
La noche era muy oscura y el camino que debían seguir pasaba por un bosque muy tupido. Andrés, que no hacía distinción entre día y noche, llegó a la ciudad antes del amanecer. En cuanto al malvado Lucas, se perdió en el bosque, bien tropezando con un tronco de árbol, bien cayendo en una fosa, bien enredándose en los matorrales. Al fin llegó a la entrada de la ciudad cuando ya hacía mucho tiempo que el sol alumbraba en los cielos.
Se vio obligado a pagar los cuarenta mil pesos, mientras todos decían:
- Merecía un castigo aún mayor por su maldad.
