SOCIAL JUSTICE SOCIAL ACTION

Social Concerns for Peace and Justice Committee,

Once again, we'd like to share a reflection on one of the principles of Catholic social teaching by Fr. Steve Kluge, OFM.

The foundation: solidarity

Since God is the father of all, we are related to each other as brother or sister, and indeed to all of creation. As Pope Francis in his encyclical reminds us we are not apart from nature, but a part of nature. Solidarity reminds us that we are not just keepers of our brothers and sisters (and creation), we are our brothers and sisters and creation. As the world grows more interdependent, we must commit ourselves to the common good of all. My wealth cannot be built on the foundation of another's poverty. We need to work for peace and justice not only here at home, but throughout the world. All of us are relational beings, made in the image and likeness of God who is in God's very being a relationship of love. But this love is not self contained, but flows forth in the words of St. Bonaventure, like "a fountain fullness" into creation. We must imitate the care that God has for all of us by caring for one another and for creation. The baptism of Jesus was a baptism of solidarity with sinners and with the creation damaged by the sin of men and women. We are called by God to live a life, not only of solidarity, with all people and all of creation but like Jesus live our lives offering healing to one another and to the planet.

Questions:

Read and meditate on Matthew 4: 1-11, the temptation of Jesus. The temptations have as their goal, as breaking solidarity with the poor and hungry, those whom religion disregards, and the politically disenfranchised. In other words there is really only one temptation: break your baptism of solidarity and live for yourself. How do you live out your baptism of solidarity? What tempts you to live only for yourself? What do you do to show your care for creation? The poor?

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

La Liturgia de hoy evoca la figura del pastor. Figura muy fuerte en tiempos de Jesús. Un pastor cuida, protege y da la vida por sus ovejas. También existen los malos pastores y se distingue su mal proceder. Este Evangelio, también es recordado el IV domingo de Pascua. Jesús es el Pastor de Pastores, basta el mirar su proceder para ver lo mucho que nos ama y busca nuestro bien en todo momento. La primera lectura nos describe los rasgos de los malos pastores. Así, que, si los invertimos veremos claramente las características de los buenos pastores.

¿Actualmente a quienes se les dice pastores? Bueno, no es solamente los pastores en la iglesia. Pastores son las personas que cuidan y protegen y guían a otros. Se les puede llamar pastores a los padres de familia, a los maestros, a los abuelitos y a toda persona que tiene bajo su cuidado, de alguna forma, el hogar, la escuela o la oficina. El Evangelio nos dice que Jesús dijo a sus discípulos: "Vámonos aparte, a un lugar retirado, y descansarán un poco. Porque eran tantos los que iban y venían que no les quedaba tiempo ni para comer" (Marcos 6:31-32). Lo que paso a los apóstoles, les pasa a los padres de familia responsables del cuidado de sus hijos. Son tantas las idas y venidas que no hay tiempo ni para comer. ¡Señor Jesús, deseo que tú seas mi Pastor y mi Maestro en todo lo que hago! Guíanos a todos y cúranos de nuestras heridas por esta pandemia. El mundo entero te necesita, no nos abandones. Oremos juntos: "El Señor es mi Pastor nada me falta; en verdes pastos él me hace reposar. A las aguas de descanso me conduce, y reconforta mi alma" (Salmo 23: 1-3).

©LPi

Cuando Jesús desembarcó, vio una numerosa multitud que lo estaba esperando y se compadeció de ellos, porque andaban como ovejas sin pastor, y se puso a enseñarles muchas cosas.

FOCUS ON THE WORD

GOSPEL MEDITATION

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

There's an ordinary pine grove located on a tree farm not too far from town where life's stresses and demands seem to melt away. It is here that all that seemed so important out there no longer is and one can get lost in the rows of trees and majestic beauty. God is here and all is good. We need to connect with the Divine Source of all that is in order to understand what it is we are doing and why we are doing it. Otherwise, things stop making sense and bitterness can overcome one's spirit. It's okay to play once in a while and to discover that place of profound life and peace. People always have needs and there is constantly something to do. And while all of that is necessary and we are needed, there is also that inner solitude within that needs to be celebrated and released.

We all need a pine grove. It's that little place we can go and leave all that consumes us behind. It's a place where technology can be set aside and wonder, and awe given some time. We don't have to text, calculate, or orchestrate anything in the pine grove. It is a somewhat deserted place where all of that can be set aside and we can just be. The anger, frustration, exhaustion, discouragement, helplessness, and occasional apathy, all can fall to the ground like all of those pine needles that once held their place on the branch of a Frasier Fir. The needles can let go. We can let go. We are beings connected with Being and we all need to remember what really matters, who really matters and what life is truly all about. We need to find that place where we can rest and let go of all of the barnacles we accumulate. Rest, breathe, seek, and love.

The world will need us again when we leave the pine grove. It will all be waiting for us, beckoning for our attention. But we will have prayed and will have marveled at the silence and the beauty of goodness. We can go back, ready, and eager to listen, to help, to heal, to cry, to embrace, and attend to all that is asked of us. But, having let go of the distractions in that deserted place we will have a renewed sense of purpose. We will know better Who it is we serve and what we are meant to do. It will all be clearer now that we have been Divinely touched and refreshed.

EVERYDAY REFLECTION

The Steward's Work Is Never Done

Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock! When you hear these strong words from the Old Testament, you're probably thinking, thank goodness I don't have any sheep — dodged that bullet. Nobody misled here! No flock scattered on my watch! However, we are all shepherds of a kind, called to tend our own sheep: our families, our parishes, our communities.

But it's exhausting. Don't we all sometimes just want to take a break from being a steward? The excuses are so familiar: we're tired, we've done enough, we've given all we can, what more does the parish (or my spouse, or my kids, or my boss, or my friends, or my community) want? We give ourselves permission to be selfish. So, what if the flock scatters just a little?

Jesus gets that. We can just imagine him weary with exhaustion, can't we? We see him on his boat, attempting to sneak away for a quick break — maybe just a chance to eat a bite of food in peace. He is God, but he was still human, after all. Even the most dedicated shepherds need to sleep. But people couldn't leave him alone. They were hungry for him. They needed what he could offer, and they needed it now.

As tough as it is, that's the example we are tasked with imitating. Everyday Stewardship demands accountability. It demands our showing up even when we are tired. It demands that we look at our lives, our time, our energies, our talents, our hearts, our bank accounts and think: where do I still have more to give?

KIDS SHARING THE GOSPEL

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Have you ever just wanted to be alone for a while? Jesus and his disciples knew what that felt like. They wanted to be alone to talk and rest, but crowds of people were surrounding them. Even when Jesus and his disciples tried to slip away unnoticed, people followed them anyway. They arrived only to find more crowds of people. This was certainly not the quiet time they had planned on. Being patient and kind, Jesus gave up what he wanted, and he began to teach the crowds.

PRAYER

Dear God, thank you that Jesus gave up what he wanted, just so he could help other people. Help me to follow his example. Amen.

SOMETHING TO DRAW

Draw Jesus surrounded by large crowds of people.

Honoring our Tradition Investing in our Future

A Stewardship Campaign for Hayden Catholic High School

This past spring, Hayden Catholic High School conducted a planning study to determine support for a stewardship campaign to help us address necessary infrastructure repairs and upgrades, provide for educational enhancements and help solidify funding for tuition assistance.

After gathering feedback from parents, past parents, alumni and from the Topeka area pastors, the Steier Group reported their findings and we learned there is significant support in our community for a campaign.

With approval from Archbishop Naumann, Hayden Catholic High School is pleased to announce that we are in the early planning stages of our upcoming Honoring our Tradition-Investing in our Future stewardship campaign.

Among the treasures will be relics of St. Teresa of Calcutta, St. Joseph, St. Maria Goretti, St. Therese of Lisieux (the "Little Flower"), St. Francis of Assisi, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Thomas Aquinas, and St. Faustina Kowalska. There will also be a portion of the Veil of Our Lady and one of the largest remaining pieces of the True Cross in the world. Those in attendance will be able to examine and venerate each relic. Throughout history, many healings have been worked in the presence of relics; and thousands have occurred through this ministry. Do not miss this opportunity. You are encouraged to bring your articles of devotion (such as rosaries, holy cards, etc.) and pictures of ill friends/family members, which you will be able to touch to the reliquaries as a means of intercession.
