ST. JOHN'S MEXICAN FIESTA THANK YOU

We want to thank everyone who volunteered and attended the 40th Annual St. John's Mexican Fiesta! It felt so good to work with the parish community again. We deeply missed it last year! It was great to see so many people laughing and having a great time especially Fr John who made it his mission to try to say hello to as many people as possible.

Thank you to all our sponsors and donors. These companies and individuals are terrific community partners. They were all generous and responded quickly to our request. We are fortunate to have them associated with the Fiesta! Please thank these companies by supporting their businesses.

Finally, thank you to our Fiesta Committee and core volunteers who give of their time so unselfishly. With only a short time to plan and to prepare, they put on one heck of an event! They always amaze me how they come together regardless of the challenges. I am blessed to get to work with them! See everyone next year and we will do it again!

Blessings to you all,

Frank Lemus Jr.

SOCIAL JUSTICE SOCIAL ACTION

Social Concerns for Peace and Justice Committee,

This week, we want to share with you an excerpt from a book called THE SOUL OF A CITIZEN by Paul Loeb. It examines why we need to care about social justice and barriers that can get in the way of our doing so.

CHAPTER ONE: MAKING OUR LIVES COUNT

We're often taught to view our lives as a zero-sum game. With all the pressures we face, we barely have time for family and friends. How could we possibly take on some demanding cause?

Yet for all the frustration we expect, when we do get involved, we get a lot back: new relationships, fresh skills, a sense of empowerment, pride in accomplishment. "A rich life," writes philosopher and theologian Cornel West, is fundamentally a life of serving others, "trying to leave the world a little better than you found it This is true at the personal level ... [but there's also] a political version of this. It has to do with what you see when you get up in the morning and look in the mirror and ask yourself whether you are simply wasting time on the planet or spending time in an enriching manner." Again and again, I've heard active citizens say that what motivates them the most is the desire to respect what they see in the mirror. The exercise isn't about vanity, but about values, about taking stock of ourselves and comparing the convictions we say we hold with the lives we actually lead. It's about seeing ourselves from the viewpoint of our communities, the earth, maybe even God. If eyes are windows to the soul, and faces reflections of character, looking in the mirror lets us step back from the flux of our lives and hold ourselves accountable. Sound a bit daunting? It can be. As the saying goes, not one among us is without fault. But such self-examination also can be enormously rewarding. For it's equally true that not one among us lacks a heart, which is the wellspring of courage (the word is derived from coeur, French for heart). At the core of our being lie resources many of us never dream we possess, much less imagine we can draw on.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

A partir de hoy, durante varios domingos, las lecturas del Evangelio no se tomarán de San Marcos sino del capítulo 6 de San Juan., en el cual podremos escuchar sobre el milagro de la multiplicación de los panes. Las gentes que acudieron al encuentro de Jesús y sus enseñanzas sintieron hambre. El Evangelio nos dice que, Jesús, pues, levantó los ojos y, al ver el numeroso gentío que acudía a él, dijo a Felipe: “¿Dónde iremos a comprar pan para que coma esa gente? (Juan 6:5). Enseguida, viene el diálogo de pregunta y respuesta entre Jesús y Felipe. Andrés se dio cuenta que un muchacho traía cinco panes de cebada y dos pescados. Pero, ¿qué es esto para tanta gente? Jesús dijo: “Hagan que se siente la gente (Juan 6:10). Enseguida, Jesús dio las gracias y repartió el pan entre los que estaban sentados. Lo mismo hizo con los pescados.

El milagro vino, todos comieron hasta saciarse y recogieron todavía doce canastas con lo que había quedado. Jesús es el Pan de Vida que se da como alimento para nuestra jornada. El Papa Francisco nos dice: “¡La multiplicación de los panes y de los peces es un signo del gran don que el Padre ha hecho a la humanidad: es Jesús mismo! El, verdadero pan de vida, quiere saciar no solamente los cuerpos sino también las almas. --- El Señor nos invita a no olvidar que, si es necesario preocuparse por el pan, todavía más importante es cultivar la relación con él, reforzar nuestra fe en él, que es el pan de vida, venido para saciar nuestra hambre de verdad, nuestra hambre de justicia, nuestra hambre de amor. (8/5/2018). Y durante este tiempo de pandemia, nuestra necesidad de sanar. ©LPi

Jesús le respondió: “Díganle a la gente que se siente”. En aquel lugar había mucha hierba. Todos, pues, se sentaron ahí; y tan sólo los hombres eran unos cinco mil. Después de que todos se saciaron, dijo a sus discípulos: “Recojan los pedazos sobrantes, para que no se desperdicien”.

FOCUS ON THE WORD

GOSPEL MEDITATION

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

St. Oscar Romero said, "We cannot do everything, and there is a sense of liberation in realizing that. This enables us to do something and to do it very well. It may be incomplete, but it is the beginning, a step along the way, an opportunity for the Lord's grace to enter and do the rest."

There were a group of ladies many years ago who made quilts. They were beautiful creations reflecting inspirational designs artfully composed from the simple scraps of fabric each woman would bring to their individual pieces. There was no plan for the finished project as each finished work became the combined creation of what each woman contributed. They abounded in vibrant colors and dazzled the beholder with intricate patterns and their myriad textures. They were so beautiful that they became coveted family treasures passed from generation to generation. Those women never realized the power of their work. Countless babies rested in the comfort of those quilts warmly nestled in the legacy of tradition they were fortunate to inherit. They adorned countless homes with their beauty and brought joy and solace to many faces.

We cannot do everything. We are not meant to. Our work in life is to contribute our individual piece, a piece that reflects the unique thumbprint I claim as my own. We only have to do small things well. Then, as St. Oscar Romero reminds us, the Lord's grace will enter and do the rest. We have to trust that this is true just as those women trusted in the eventual beauty of their final work.

Eucharistic blessings are blessings that start small and multiply. We all come to life with only a few loaves of bread and a few fish. Not any single one of us has all that it takes to transform our world. Who knows what God will do with the little we have and how many will benefit from our kindness, compassion, wisdom, courage, conviction, love, warmth, zeal, faith, and hope? That young lad never dreamed that his few leftovers would do all that they did. God shows up in unexpected ways! Where would life's adventure and fun be if it were any other way? Being able to be part of bringing God's creative, transforming, healing to the world opens us up to wonder, awe, and excitement! We can all bring our little piece to the bigger work of God that can result in being a coveted jewel passed generation to generation. This is good news indeed!

Bread and wine transform into Christ's Body and Blood and we become what we eat. Trust that. ©LPi

EVERYDAY REFLECTION

It's All in the Basket

St. Therese of Lisieux made a point of going the extra mile in kindness towards those people who really got under her skin. It was part of her own brand of Everyday Stewardship — thanking God for all His creation, even the parts with which, in her own humanness, she struggled to cope.

I think about this a lot when I challenge myself to give thanks for things that bother me and people who challenge me. When I do this, I envision Christ giving thanks over those insufficient loaves. How many of us would see that paltry little basket and kick a rock in frustration because we can't feed all our people? "You didn't give me enough, Lord! You didn't give me enough patience, enough money, enough creativity, enough stamina to be a good steward. If you had given me more, I could also give more!"

In those moments of despair, we need to take a good look at the life God has given us. We need to look at the trials and the challenges and the shortcomings. The hopes that didn't pan out, the disappointments that keep cropping up. Somewhere therein lies what we need to be the steward God asks us to be, just as St. Therese's own stewardship was defined by the people she simply couldn't stand.

God does not give us all we want. He does not give us all we ask for. He does us one better: He gives us all we need. It's all in the basket.

KIDS SHARING THE GOSPEL

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Your mother sends you to sell two fish and five loaves of bread at the market. Jesus and a crowd walk by you. You see love in the eyes of Jesus as he heals people. Then you forget about selling your food and follow him. Jesus says, "Treat others as you like to be treated." Everyone gets hungry. Then Jesus asks for food. You say, "Here, Lord. I will share with you and your people."

PRAYER

Lord, help me share what I have.

SOMETHING TO DRAW

Draw yourself sharing two fish and five loaves of bread with a crowd of people.

Honoring our Tradition Investing in our Future

A Stewardship Campaign for Hayden Catholic High School

This past spring, Hayden Catholic High School conducted a planning study to determine support for a stewardship campaign to help us address necessary infrastructure repairs and upgrades, provide for educational enhancements and help solidify funding for tuition assistance.

After gathering feedback from parents, past parents, alumni and from the Topeka area pastors, the Steier Group reported their findings and we learned there is significant support in our community for a campaign.

With approval from Archbishop Naumann, Hayden Catholic High School is pleased to announce that we are in the early planning stages of our upcoming Honoring our Tradition-Investing in our Future stewardship campaign.

SACRED RELICS OF THE SAINTS: TREASURES OF THE CHURCH

All are invited to a teaching and exposition of Sacred Relics on Wednesday, July 28 at Mother Teresa Parish and Thursday, July 29 at Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish in Topeka beginning at 6:30 pm. Father Carlos Martins of the Companions of the Cross will be here with an extraordinary Vatican collection of over 150 relics, some as old as 2000 years. Among the treasures will be relics of St. Teresa of Calcutta, St. Joseph, St. Maria Goretti, St. Therese of Lisieux (the "Little Flower"), St. Francis of Assisi, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Thomas Aquinas, and St. Faustina Kowalska. There will also be a portion of the Veil of Our Lady and one of the largest remaining pieces of the True Cross in the world. Those in attendance will be able to examine and venerate each relic. Throughout history, many healings have been worked in the presence of relics; and thousands have occurred through this ministry. Do not miss this opportunity. You are encouraged to bring your articles of devotion (such as rosaries, holy cards, etc.) and pictures of ill friends/family members, which you will be able to touch to the reliquaries as a means of intercession.

Hayden Is Enrolling For 2021-2022

Give the Gift of a Catholic Education!

Becoming a Hayden student is more than merely submitting an application. It is a process for you to come to know our school and decide if Hayden offers the kind of experience you and your family want to be a part of. We love our school and we want every Hayden family to feel as we do!

Contact us at haydencatholic@haydencatholic.net if you would like to explore a faith based education.
