ST. PEDRO DE SAN JOSÉ BETANCUR | APRIL 25

Central America's first saint, St. Pedro de San José Betancur (1626-1667) was born a poor shepherd in the Canary Islands. His family lands were seized because of debt, and he worked as an indentured servant until his early adult life when Pedro left his home to travel to Guatemala. His money for the journey ran out long before he arrived. He was destitute when he did arrive and was forced to join the bread line the Franciscan Friars had for the poor.

In 1655, he joined the Third Order of St Francis. Pedro began to serve the poor, the enslaved, immigrants, abandoned children, anyone that needed him. In 1658 he was given a hut which he made into a hospital for the poor. This small start grew into a shelter for the homeless, a school for the poor, an inn for priests, and several small chapels in poor areas. He was supported by many patrons and was joined in his work by both men and women, who became the Bethlehemite Brothers and the Bethlehemite Sisters.

Pedro prayed for the souls of those in purgatory, walked through the streets of rich neighborhoods ringing a bell and calling the wealthy to repent, and ministered to prisoners. Most accounts credit him with beginning the tradition of posadas, a procession in which people representing Mary and Joseph ask for lodging from their neighbors. This tradition continues today in Mexico and Central America. Because of his work with the poor and marginalized Pedro is often referred to as the "Saint Frances of the Americas". St. Pedro was canonized on July 30, 2002, in Guatemala City, Guatemala by Pope John Paul II. © LPi

SOCIAL JUSTICE SOCIAL ACTION

By The Social Concerns for Peace and Justice Committee

On April 28, the Justice Matters solutions assembly will take place at the Douglas County Fairgrounds at 6:30 pm. Free tickets will be available after Mass and will be available this week from Justice Matters team leaders: Pat Lechtenberg, Ruth Entwistle, Jean Drumm, Cyndee Courtney, Jenny Nielsen and Susan Tabor.

Bringing your entire family to this event would be a great way not only for everyone to see what our interfaith advocacy work has been up to in our community, but would be a great civics lesson for the kids, Mom and Dad. Want to keep citizen participation in our government alive? Come to the assembly with your St. John's family and others! Then seriously consider joining our efforts as a team leader or as a network member! There's more work to be done!

KIDS SHARING THE GOSPEL

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Jesus, the best friend of the apostles, had just been killed for his teachings. The apostles were afraid the soldiers would come and kill them, too. They were so frightened that they locked all the windows and the doors in the upper room where they had the Last Supper. They huddled together in fear. When Jesus appeared right in the middle of them, they were amazed. He said, "Do not be afraid. I am with you."

Lord, come to me when I am afraid.

FOCUS ON THE WORD

GOSPEL MEDITATION

2nd Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday)

Even Thomas struggles to remove his boulder! Being very pragmatic and determined, he wants to see the risen Christ for himself! Thomas's boulder is heavy with mistrust. Many of ours are too. A certain amount of skepticism is good, as it can save us from being duped or misled. But we can become so skeptical of things that it erodes our ability to trust anything we see or hear. Skepticism can actually be a well-disguised defense mechanism that we use to prevent us from being hurt or perceived as a fool. Having too much ego protection is a real risk. Thomas, because of the boulder blocking his vision, could not even trust the word of his friends.

Boulders are hard to move. It's difficult to seek change or take a risk, especially when we are so afraid to be vulnerable or reluctant to trust another's word. When we are closed minded, overly pragmatic, unwilling to see things in a different way, stubborn or defensive, it is difficult to be surprised by God and stretched. We need to be less guarded, self-assured, and self-absorbed. God cannot break into the ordinary moments of our lives and inspire us when we cling to doubt. If we are going to discover resurrection faith, we have to believe that what the witnesses say is true, especially when they are credible. We also have to trust that the risen Christ is alive in us, too!

While the first witnesses to the resurrection have faded into history, there are many others who have come after them. They continue to inspire by walking the talk of faith. They are the martyrs who offer their lives for the Gospel, the simple holy people in our communities who cling so steadfastly to their faith, those who have touched despair and found new hope and the ones who, even in spite of ridicule, still pursue their hunger and thirst for God. They are our friends, acquaintances, biblical heroes, and saints, and many others who are convinced that they have seen the Lord! The risen Christ may not surprise us with the same kind of visit as he did the first disciples, but God finds other ways. All we have to do is open our eyes, remove whatever is preventing us from seeing and believing and exclaim: "My Lord and my God!" ©LPI

EVERYDAY REFLECTION

The World Is Watching

If you're a parent, you know this to be true: the world is watching. All it takes is one slip-up — one bad word, one selfish action, one uncharitable commentary, and that's the thing your child seems to notice.

When he or she calls you on it, the only thing you can do is come clean. "Yep, I did that," you have to say. "I'm a work in progress, but luckily, God never stops working."

I think it's fair to say that we don't think enough about the wounds of Christ. It's a little understandable, of course. Our human bodies flinch at the sight of such pain and mortification. It's a lot to handle, the physical trauma of a crucifixion. It carries an R rating in a PG world.

But the wounds of Christ are the only thing that could make Thomas believe. Literally nothing else was so powerful, not even the testimony of his most trusted friends. Only by looking at and feeling the torn flesh — by beholding that messy reality — did this Apostle, this actual companion of Christ, come to believe in the Resurrection.

"Christ has no body now but yours," goes the famous quote attributed to St. Teresa of Avila. What she's saying is that we have become the means through which God chooses to accomplish His will in the world. Us, the broken. Us, the weary. Us, the imperfect. Yes, miraculous events and apparitions still occur from time to time, but by and large, if a person is going to come to believe in Jesus Christ in this day and age, it will be because of something we Christians do or say.

Christ has no wounds now but ours. Our brokenness, our weariness, our imperfection — our reality. It all belongs to him, and the world is watching.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©Lpi

REFLECTION

Can anyone offer the Anointing of the Sick to a sick or dying person, or is that only something a priest can do?

The Letter of James speaks to us of the ancient tradition of a special anointing and blessing of those who are sick: "Is there anyone sick among you? Let him send for the presbyters of the Church and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord ... If he has committed any sins, they will be forgiven him" (5:14, 15b). This passage forms the foundation for the theology of the sacrament that we call "Anointing of the Sick." In keeping with what we read in the Letter of James and the ancient tradition of the Church, the anointing of a person of who sick or dying many only be performed by a priest or bishop.

Although deacons and other members of the Church are not able to celebrate the sacrament with a person who is sick, we can read Sacred Scripture and pray with and for those who are ill. Resources like the Book of Blessings also contain special blessings that can be celebrated by deacons or lay ministers. In the end, we want to be sure that we show a special care and concern for the sick, helping them to always experience God's loving comfort through made tangible through our acts of charity and service. ©LPI

CUENTO NÚMERO 32

No soy un solterón ni los chicos me molestan.

(Marcos 7, 13-16)

Un día, lleno de sol y con la tarea habitual que Jesús tenía agendada, tan abundante como la del día anterior, vinieron unas maestras y alumnos de la Escuela ENET N° 4, de Lanús para visitar al Señor y pedirle alguna estampita. Algunos chicos también querían un autógrafo, pero no se animaban a pedirselo, porque "la señorita" les había dicho que ni se atrevieran a molestar a Jesús, que bastante cargado estaba el pobre con entrevistas a diestra y siniestra, conferencias de prensa, cartas-circulares a las parroquias, fiestas patronales, clases a catequistas, audiencias privadas, además del tiempo sagrado que dedicaba a rezar el santo rosario.

Pues bien... Llegaron los chicos, traviesos y charlatanes como todos los niños del mundo, tanto que obligaban a las maestras a gritar como locas..., como todas las maestras del mundo: - ¡Silencio, chicos, silencio!

Todo era un alboroto de guardapolvos blancos (¡un tornado de guardapolvos blancos!), cerca del río Jordán, donde el Señor los había citado, previendo que después los chicos podrían tener una convivencia, comer la tortilla, la pizza y los huevos duros que habitualmente les hacen las mamás para estas ocasiones, y darse un chapuzón en el río. Para eso había ido también el profesor de educación física... (Como todos sabemos, porque estudiamos Geografía, Lanús queda cerca del río Jordán...).

Cuando arremetieron contra Jesús para sacarse una foto con él, y pedirle la estampita de que hablábamos antes, aparecieron los "secretarios" del Señor y comenzaron a gritar: - ¡Orden, orden...! ¡Hagan fila! No molesten al Maestro porque está bastante cansado y los médicos le han recetado mucho reposo. Además... ¡dejen de gritar! ¡En la capilla, hay que hacer silencio absoluto! ¿Qué les han enseñado en las clases de religión? (El encuentro tenía lugar en la capilla del barrio).

¿Por qué será que en todo el mundo y en todo tiempo, los famosos "secretarios" y "maestros de ceremonias", sean los de Putin, Menem o Bush, son tan obsecuentes y mandones, que asumen el corazón y la voz de aquellos a quienes sirven? - ¡No molesten al Señor! ¿No se dan cuenta de que hoy tiene una fuerte jaqueca?

Y..., reto iba, reto venía, lograron que los chicos se asustaran y se callaran, como pequeños muertos vestidos con guardapolvos blancos. Jesús salió (con jaqueca y todo...) y se agarró una bronca "5 estrellas" contra esos personajes agua-fiestas. Les dijo: -En primer lugar, sepan que soy célibe por el Reino de los cielos, pero no un "solterón", raza inaguantable, exigente, a quien todo molesta y nada conforma. ¡Me encantan los chicos, pero no los chicos callados, limpios y ordenados en filas! Y, dirigiéndose a los niños, les ordenó: - Muchachos y chicas: ¡a gritar se ha dicho! ¡Corran un poco para ir abriendo el apetito! ¿Alguien trajo una guitarra? ¿Saben cantar? ¡Sean felices y hagan de cuenta que están en su casa, porque en verdad lo están!

Y a los funcionarios y maestras les anunció: -Señores y señoras: estos chicos y chicas son los dueños del cielo. Ustedes sean como ellos: simples, espontáneos, pequeños, sin doblez. Si no... ¡no habrá Reino para ustedes! Y a sus secretarios: -Les agradezco sus servicios. Son necesarios, pero... ¡no me cuiden tanto ni me mezquinen!

Ese día, Jesús dejó que le sacaran fotos. Se puso una caseta de Boca (a pedido de un pequeño "bostero"). Les regaló estampitas y medallitas en cantidad, para que repartieran sus padres y abuelitos. Firmó autógrafos y los bendijo, deseándoles todo bien. Les pidió que estudiaran mucho, rezaran mucho, fueran buenos compañeros y no hicieran perder la paciencia a las maestras.

Y no se molestó porque lo molestaran.

No es "solterón" el que, de hecho, no se haya casado, sino el que jamás se podría haber casado, porque ninguna mujer lo aguantaría. - ¡Esta comida esta fría! ¡Me planchaste mal la camisa! ¡Cuántas veces tengo que decirte que no me gusta el pescado! ¡Que se callen los chicos porque no puedo oír las noticias por la tele! Nada le cae bien... Jesús era lo mas lejano a esta "multinacional" insoportable de "solterones".

-Héctor Muñoz

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

On the Second Sunday of Easter, the Church celebrates the Sunday of Divine Mercy. It provides an important opportunity to share Christ's message of mercy, especially with those who suffer because of their participation in an abortion. By the age of 45, as many as 1 in 3 women have had an abortion, and a similar number of men and family members have been involved. Many feel that abortion is "the unforgivable sin." They need to hear that, through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, God forgives every sin of a repentant heart, even the sin of abortion. In fact, Jesus' message to St. Faustina is that the greater the sinner, the greater the right to His mercy.

The Action Guide for the Sunday of Divine Mercy includes a sample timeline, simple steps, sample announcements, homily helps, and an activity to help you bring Christ's message of mercy to your parish community.

Priests and deacons may find these considerations especially helpful when preparing their homilies.

Visit: respectlife.org/action-guides and uscbb.org/prolife/divine-mercy-sunday for additional resources.
