WELCOME!

ARCHBISHOP'S CALL TO SHARE 2022

Jesus never sinned. So why did he get baptized? To be close to us. Instead of the waters cleansing Jesus from original sin, we can think of Jesus's submersion into the river Jordan as Him baptizing the water. By taking part in this ritual, Jesus elevates it. He raises it to the level of a sacrament, a moment when we know that He will be present, through which we can encounter Him. That's what happened when each of us were baptized. We became Christ's brothers and sisters.

And if we're joined to Jesus in baptism, then what he hears after coming ashore also applies to us: "You are my beloved son; with you I am well pleased." Through baptism, we become sons and daughters of God. This is our true identity!

Reminding ourselves of this identity—for instance, when we make the sign of the cross with Holy Water—transforms the way we live. If God is Our Father, it means our life is a gift. And it means He's inviting us into his work of generosity and love. How does this change the way we think about helping our parish community? About volunteering our time and talents? About supporting the Archbishop's Call to Share appeal? Pray about it and see!

SOCIAL JUSTICE SOCIAL ACTION

By The Social Concerns for Peace and Justice Committee

The city and Family Promise are still greatly in need of volunteers for the city's Winter Emergency Shelter (WES) and its need for volunteers. If you are interested in helping by being an overnight host at the sites in the Community Building and the East Lawrence Recreation Center, or for families who will be housed separately in a local church, please contact Susan Tabor at: souljourner@sbcglobal.net. There is training offered in advance and she will give you that information. Please give this request some prayerful consideration. Thank you! The plan is for the winter emergency shelter to have its last night of operation on February 28.

Now here are some more tips for helping you build a more earth-friendly lifestyle:

56. Have your groceries delivered

Instead of having to drive to the supermarket every time you need to buy something, shop online and in bulk and have your stuff delivered at home. This way, you not only reduce your carbon emissions, but you'll also be less likely to impulse buy which can help to reduce food wastage.

57. Eat more plant-based foods

Add more plant-based foods into your plate for not only a healthier lifestyle but also a more sustainably conscious lifestyle. Every little change you make will have a large impact.

58. Start a compost pile

Start a compost and compost as much as you can. Instead of using fertilizer, use your compost for your lawn and garden. Most foods that take long to decompose in a landfill, take just a couple of months in a compost pile.

59. Be particular about the fish you eat

Popular fish is overharvested so that it can make it to your plate. This affects ocean ecosystems. Try and reduce your fish intake and add more textured vegetable protein.

Eco Travel Tips

60. Seek out green options

If you love traveling and do so quite often, spend your nights in hotels that use renewable energy, and recycle or compost waste. Stay in places that support conservation such as ecolodges. Such hotels are designed to have very little impact on the environment and help support sustainable tourism.

FOCUS ON THE WORD

GOSPEL MEDITATION

The Baptism of the Lord

"We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ."

— Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

I Hope I Am Like Him

“Who is this Christ? Is he like you?”

Perhaps you’ve heard this story, often attributed to the life of St. Teresa of Calcutta. A sick man asked her this question, as he marveled at her tireless service to himself and others in the name of someone named Jesus Christ.

“He is nothing like me,” the saint is said to have answered. “But I hope I am like him.”

Though the authenticity of this exchange cannot be verified, its message rings perfectly true: all the value of our stewardship lies in its relativity to the one in whose name we perform it.

Consider the figure of John the Baptist — a magnificent, towering character even purely from a literary or historical perspective. A martyr who fed on wild locusts and boldly spoke truth to power — a man so great some mistook him for the Messiah.

But why is he great? Because he prepared the way. All his accomplishments and escapades mean nothing if they are taken out of the context of salvation history. He only makes sense relative to Christ — and this is exactly as he wanted it. “One worthier than I is coming,” he insists. And because of that humility and that total embrace of God’s will, he is given one of the greatest honors in the New Testament — he baptizes the Son of God.

Let’s examine our lives in the light of their relativity to Christ. How do we prepare the way? When Christ comes to us, what do we do? How do we leave ourselves open to be actors in God’s plan?

CUENTO NÚMERO 17

Hasta ahora, pescaban peces; en adelante, pescaran hombres (Lucas 5, 1-13)

Hace tiempo y a lo lejos, cuando Jesús recorría tierras de Judea y Galilea, decidió ir al lago de Genesaret, llamado también mar de Galilea, donde bañaban sus costas Betsaida, Cafarnaúm. Magdala, Tiberiades..., lugares conocidos por Jesús, más que la palma de su mano.

Todos ustedes saben lo que ocurrió: una pesca maravillosa, portento matinal, cuando unos rudos pescadores atendidos en su oficio, habían intentado pescar, toda una noche, sin éxito: ¡no había picado ni una mojarrita!

Junto con la confianza y la admiración, les vino el susto, especialmente a Simón Pedro, Jesús le calmó los ánimos con su habitual: - No temas... Pero añadió: -De ahora en adelante serás pescador de hombres

No les cambió a los pescadores su oficio, sino el contenido de las redes.

Pero tendrían mucho que aprender de este " maestro de pesca". Si bien sabía que, para obtener buena calidad y cantidad de peces, hay que tener buenas barcas, buenas redes y buena camada y, además, hay que conocer los vientos, las mareas y los mejores días o tiempos para la pesca, debían ahora adiestrarse en el más difícil arte; el de "pescar hombres", y Jesús sería el instructor.

Esta pesca es mucho más compleja y ardua, porque al pez se lo pesca "contra su voluntad", mientras que el hombre puede ser pescado "si se deja pescar". De esto se dieron cuenta tanto Pedro como sus amigos y colegas del Sindicato.

¿Aprendieron? Nunca se termina de aprender un arte, pero creo que aprobaron satisfactoriamente el examen de ingreso y las buenas lecciones del Maestro.

Si ves que la carnada es sabrosa, no tengas miedo de picar.

*¡Déjate pescar y no te rebeles contra el Pescador!
Además, si oyes a Jesús queriendo cambiarte la profesión, déjalo todo y síguelo. Por lo menos, eso hicieron Simón Pedro y muchos otros, hasta nuestros días.*

*¿Condición para el éxito? ¡No te quedes con nada!
¡Déjalo todo y ganarás todo!
-Héctor Muñoz*
